> Personal .- At the recent election of Norfolk Lodge, A. F. and A. M., of Norfolk, Emmet J. Mann, the gallant and beloved first lieutenant of the Manchester Elliott Grays, was elected presiding officer; and Walter A. Edwards, the equally gallant orderly sergeant of Company H, Sixth regiment, Mahone's old brigade, was chosen to fill the second position.

The report from the Street Committee in Saturday's Dispatch should have been credited to Captain James A. Lipscombe, acting city engineer.

Thomas J. Borum, one of our most popular ex-residents, now roadmaster of the Richmond and Danville railroad on the Clover division, is in the city. Socrates Brooks, Esq., was reported a greatly improved Saturday.

Whitsuntide Celebrations.—There will be grand festival and lecture for the benefit of Providence Baptist church to-day. To-day, also, the class of Mr. James H. Wade, from the Laurel-Street Methodist church of Richmond, will have a pic-nic at Vaymack's Richmond View. It is expected that all the Manchester odges of Odd-Fellows, the Rebekah Lodge, and many Masons, will attend the cornertone laying at Midlothian to-morrow.

The Fête Champetre, to be given by the ladies of the Presbyterian church, is exciting great interest, and will be a success.

The Moffett Register .- Commissioner W. G. Flournoy reports the following state of the register in the First district for the month of May :

Alcoholic drinks, 5,655; tax, $141.40; malt, 356; tax, $1.78-total, $143.18. There is only one malt register in the district, and that was put up recently. The teachers passed resolutions of thanks to Superintendent Hancock for the impartial, courteous, and efficient manner in which he had discharged his duties. The compliment was well merited, as Mr. Hancock has been a zealous and faithful friend of the public schools, the teachers, and the pupils. Work on the Dam .- Saturday Mr. James Brown, foreman for Mr. James Netherwood, the contractor for the stone-work on the city dam, was engaged in putting bis derricks in position. He expects to complete his preliminary arrangements to-day, and it is probable that active operations will begin to-morrow. When this work is completed the water-line will be in a good condition, and, with no Providential accident, will not need any further outlay, it is believed, for some years.
